markilux MX-3. Colour and contentment unlimited.

Trendy personalisation included The markilux MX-3 takes the changing times into account. Not only with its trend-setting design but in particular with the option of personalising the colour of this designer awning. The standard markilux awning frame colours – and eight additional accentuated colours for the all-round styling panel – can be combined at will without surcharge and are available with a colour-coordinated, recommended awning cover on request. For even more individuality, the cassette, all-round styling panel and cover can be selected from their respective RAL colour swatches.
