Hi Nicole. The kitchen is a Venetian imitation wood in white. The fitting hight would be between 2100/2200

The two perfect fits or two patio doors.

Yes she be fine with the 25mm slats.

And the other window is matching with the perfect fits, fitting hight would be between 2100/2200

I do apologise for all the errors with the fitting hight, I fully understand why they're vital and no matter what messers it is they will be details on the fitting hight.

I personally believe 2 days training on sales isn't enough to digest every blind (details), what products we can offer and Any problem that may arise.

Ive been picking Shauns brains every time I have a chance too and he's been spoon feeding me information that I believe in vital in some cases.

Kind regards Adam

Hi Adam,

Please see the attached.

What is blind number 1? A roller or vertical?

There is no fitting heights for any of the blinds?

Also you have sold 16mm, we no longer manufacture 16mm blinds and cannot supply these.

Would your customer accept 25mm?

Let me know if you would like the girls to call her or if you will call her yourself.

Kind regards,

Nicole McMillan
