MEASUREMENTS. If you are providing your own measurements, ensure they are correct and accurate as we cannot accept the return of made- to-measure goods on the basis that the measurements were incorrectly supplied by you.

ACCESS. If we have agreed to install the goods for you and you do not allow us access to premises without having a good reason for this, we may charge you additional reasonable costs incurred to us as a result of this. If despite our reasonable efforts we are unable to contact you or to re-arrange access to the premises, we may end the contract and you will be liable to pay us a sum up to the price due under the contract.

If despite our reasonable efforts we are unable to contact you to re-deliver or arrange collection within a reasonable time, we may end the contract and you will still be liable to pay us up to the price due under the contract.

DELAY OUTSIDE OUR CONTROL. If delivery/installation is delayed by an event outside our control, we will contact you as soon as possible and take steps to minimise the effect of the delay. REPAIR CONTRACTS. The repair detailed in the order form, will be carried out professionally and with due care and skill. However, please note that with older products, either through general wear and tear, exposure to the sun's rays, or for external products exposure to prevailing weather conditions, we can offer no guarantee that the repair we carry out will not affect another part of the product either during or after the repair. Additionally, depending on the age of the product, replacement parts may no longer be available.

a) You may cancel a contract if we have told you about a pricing error/error with a description of the goods and you do not wish to proceed, if there is a risk that supply may be significantly delayed, or you have a legal right to end the contract because of something we have done wrong.

b) If we miss the delivery deadline for any of the goods, you can treat the contract as at an end if; we have refused to deliver the goods, delivery time was essential, and you have informed us of this at the time of your order and we accepted your order on that basis. If we have not refused to deliver the goods, or delivery time was not essential, we will deliver the goods as soon as possible and keep you updated in writing. Alternatively, you can give us a new deadline for re-delivery that must be reasonable and if this is not met, then you may treat the contract as at an end. You can then cancel your order for any of the goods or reject any goods that have been delivered already under the contract.

c) The cancellation period for a service only contract, such as a repair, will end 14 days after a contract is made. If you asked us to begin performance of the service during the cancellation period, you shall pay us an amount that is in proportion to what has been performed up to the time of cancellation, in comparison with the total value of the contract. You lose your right to cancel a service contract that has been fully performed within the cancellation period, providing that you requested this and acknowledged that the right to cancel would be lost.

This does not affect your legal rights as a consumer if the service is not carried out with reasonable care and skill. We will then refund your money you have paid for the cancelled goods and their delivery and installation. Goods already delivered to you must be returned to us at our expense or you must allow us to collect them at our expense.

a) We may end the contract at any time in writing to you (including email) if payment due to us was still not made within 7 days of us reminding you it is due, or if you do not, within a reasonable time; allow us to deliver the goods to you, collect the goods from us, or allow us to install the goods (if this was agreed). You will then be in breach of the contract and still liable to pay us the price due under the contract.

b) If your order is accepted and processed and a pricing error that is obvious, unmistakable and could have been recognised by you as being so occurs, we reserve the right to terminate the contract and refund any sum of money you have paid to us.

LIABILITY. If we fail to comply with these terms, we are responsible for loss or damage that you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking the contract or of our failing to use reasonable care and skill, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable, unless due to our negligence. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if, at the time you placed the order, both we and you knew it might happen, e.g. if you discussed it with us before placing your order.

THIRD PARTIES. The contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms.

COMPLAINTS. You should inspect the goods and any installation work as soon as conveniently possible and contact us if you believe there is a problem. You can phone us, email us or write to us using our contact details above to inform us of any issues. We will respond to your complaint as soon as possible. In the event that we are unable to resolve the matter to your satisfaction, you may refer the complaint to the British Blind and Shutter Association's Mediation Service if you are seeking rectification only, or alternatively pursue through Alternative Dispute Resolution provider WHICH or through Small Claims Court.

OWNERSHIP AND RESPONSIBILITY FOR GOODS. The goods supplied/installed by us will become your property once we have received payment for them in full. The goods become your responsibility from the time; they were delivered to the address you gave us, you collected the goods from us, or the time we pass the goods to any third party organised by you.

LEGALITY. English law governs the contract although you can bring proceedings in England, Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland if you live in those countries.
