

Important Lead Time Information

Please note our standard lead time on all manufactured orders is 7 - 10 business days, subject to stock availability. This is also subject to the size of the order and our current manufacturing schedule.

If you require a specific despatch date then please advise your Representative on receipt of this quotation.

Please also note that any lead time provided is only valid for 24 hours and a new date should be requested after this time.

If there are any delays in placing an order, or making payment of a pro forma (if applicable), then we cannot guarantee the given lead time.

We have been informed by our carrier that due to ongoing staffing issues they cannot guarantee next deliveries, even on premium options.

Please can you bear this in mind when placing orders and allow extra time for deliveries as we cannot be held responsible for costs incurred as a result of delays.

We can offer a dedicated courier service which will guarantee delivery. Please speak to our Sales team for more information.

Due to the current fuel crisis, we have had to pass on a fuel surcharge from our carrier. We have not been advised how long this surcharge will apply but as soon as it is removed, we will remove it from our carriage pricing.
