1) The terms for the goods delivery and the transfer to the buyer of the risk of loss or damage of the goods themselves are provided for by the International Chamber of Commerce, Publication no. 560 INCOTERMS 2010, and following editions, for each single delivery term indicated in the order confirmation. The terms shown in the I.C.C. INCOTERMS 2010 or following edition reported in the order confirmation can be applied both in case of an international sale and in case of a domestic one. 2) Without prejudice to the general conditions of warranty provided by CORRADI SRL in order to take advantage of said warranty in case of damaged or missing goods discovered at the time of delivery, the buyer shall: a) check the number of packages; b) verify the integrity of each single package and, if defective, accept the goods by noting on the Transport Document / TD the wording "accepted with reservation". 3) The delivery term shown in the order confirmation is indicative and any delay in delivery does not represent CORRADI SRL non-fulfilment neither does it grant the buyer any right to claim for compensation. 4) All claims concerning the quality and quantity of the delivered goods shall be notified to CORRADI SRL, through written communication, within 8 (eight) days from the date of delivery. However, the claim communication shall not per se exempt the buyer from paying within the agreed terms and conditions. 5) Sold goods are not to be returned, provided it has been previously authorized by CORRADI SRL 6) The customer acknowledges to have acquainted, in compliance with art. 1523 and following ones of the Civil Code, the sale conditions and agrees to acquire the property of the goods, subject-matter of the contract, only upon payment of the last installment of the agreed price, taking the risks from the delivery time defined by term 1. In particular, it will be admitted that, in case of no payment of one of the agreed installments, CORRADI SRL will be entitled to return the goods and to retain, as damage compensation, the installments already paid by the customer. Any delay in paying the invoices concerning the previous orders or those in process shall entitle CORRADI SRL to:

-stop, without the seller's obligation to the Buyer to recognize any indemnity, any other current or future supply to be delivered to the Buyer;

-change the contract by making a unilateral reduction of CORRADI SRL contractual obligations.

From the expiry date of each payment and for the whole delay period, the default interests will be charged, without need of prior placing in default, to the extent provided for by the Italian legislative decree no. 231 dated 9 October 2002, and following amendments, as well as by the European Directive 2000/35/EC. 7) The Seller agrees to provide the end user with the warranties contained in the User's Manual. 8) As for everything not provided for and ruled by the present general sale conditions, all sales shall be ruled by the Italian substantial law and, with regards to the international sales, by the Uniform Norms contained in the Vienna Convention of 1980 concerning the international sales of moving goods (United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods), in case of contract between an Italian norm or a norm of the Vienna Convention and one or more provisions of these general conditions, the latter ones will prevail. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this contract shall be resolved exclusively by the competent Court of Bologna.
