Hi Maud

As they are railroaded if we made each pair into single curtains they would have a seam joining them together – is that something the client would be happy with?

Many thanks

Dawn

Importance: High

Good morning Dawn,

One of our fitters went to see the curtains yesterday and confirmed that no blackout lining was used on those.

I will be sending them back to you today with express delivery as we need those to be sorted asap. Will you be able to prioritising them once you receive them?

Our client has asked us if they could be made as 1 single instead of a pair? Is it possible?

Thanks a lot.

Kind regards

Maud
