Hello,

Jacqui could you do it or show me how to do it?

Thanks.

Kind regards

Maud

Hi Brian

Hope all ok in these strange times.

As a good client we will of course remove the £55 call out fee.

Although it has us all very confused as in order to shear off hardened steel screws is very very strange. And would have taken a large amount of force. Something we will be pondering for some time, as there is no force on those screws. They only hold a very light weight piece of aluminum.

Many thanks
