Hello Nathalie

Just wanted to update you, when the workshop team have moved the returned flooring into storage
They noticed that two packs have been opened and in one pack there are missing flooring planks approx. 4-5 in this one pack
When I looked previously I was unable to lift the packs and therefore this was missed.

Unfortunately we can only refund on full packs, in this case 16 out of the 17.
Total refund will be £1877.64, rather than the £1995 quoted for the 17 packs

I have included accounts in this email and they will action and make the payment asap

Trust this is satisfactory, thank you.

Best Regards

Fiona

Good Afternoon Nathalie,

Thank you for your email Friday and earlier today

Apologies for not replying earlier, we were investigating internally to see if we can assist you further with your request to refund.

Thank you for updating me on the remaining packs -17 in total out of the initial 31.

I contacted the supplier who confirmed that we wouldn't be able to return the product, as stated by Leeana to you last year.

I have also been in contact with Polyflor who confirmed that there would be no issue with fitting on existing wooden floor with underfloor heating, the correct preparation and adhesives would be required, which we were fully aware of. Please see attached information from Polyfor, with guidance for best practise.

We have previously fitted this product on wooden floors and take specific advice from the flooring specialist to the exact method required for each installation. The guidance from Polyflor does not say this cannot be done, only how it needs to be done.

Having said the above and that we don't normally refund on special orders, as a gesture of goodwill and for a speedy resolution for all - we are willing to take back the remaining 17 packs and credit you £1,995.00 being full settlement.

I trust this is satisfactory, please can you confirm and I will arrange collection asap.

Thank you

Best Regards

Fiona
