2 x bathroom windows

We currently have metal slats which are quite narrow - one in a silver grey and the other in a creamy beige. The rest of the windows in the house all have plantation shutters. If possible I'd like to go for something with maybe larger slats which will hopefully be a bit easier to clean - maybe something along the lines of the shutter slats but in a venetian blind if it's available? Happy to go for the same ivory colour as the rest of the shutters for the blinds too.
