

+ Adrians suggestion for 1/2 bathroom blind to be blackout.

confirmed as Banlight fabric by email with RA.

Hi Rachel,

Great thanks, our builder has confirmed that the window code is SK01. Happy to go with the solar if that is Adrian's suggestion. Not 100% sure on colour but it needs to be blackout. Maybe white would be best to blend in with the ceiling and frame, what do you think?

Thanks,
Charles

Hi Charles,

Yes of course we can supply and install for you, do you have the code for the window size? Adrian would suggest the solar powered over the motorised as they are less expensive and won't have to have an electrician involved. But happy to provide either for you.

Kind regards

Rachel

Hi Rachel,

Quick one for you, it looks like motorised Velux blinds can finally be ordered from Velux. If we were to source the one for our bedroom from yourselves are you able to supply and install, keeping in mind the window is about 3m above floor level? I think we'd go for the hard wired blind (rather than solar powered) which I believe connects to the window which is already motorised.

Thanks,
Charles

Subject: Remote in bedroom

Hi Charles

I have some good news for you this morning although have stuck my foot in it whilst doing so!

I just managed to catch Adrian to check all good with the remote control blind in the bedroom as I had not noticed it before hand and he said that given your ongoing support with the squash club and big order for your home, he was going to throw this in as a surprise for you. He had added it to the measure sheet after I had submitted it to make sure I didn't quote for it.

So this will be FOC and can confirm it will work with the Alexa too!

Kind regards

Rachel

Hi Leeana,

I Hope you are well?

My wife and I are currently renovating our house at L'Etacq and are looking for a quote for various blinds & curtains, including a motorised blind in our en suite. Is this something you would be able to quote for please?

Good Morning Charles
Thank you for your email.
We can review this for you and provide some pricing
We may need a little more detail from you such type of blind, colour etc
If you are available for a chat on the phone or pop into the showroom, this could be good.

Many thanks and speak soon

Best Regards

Fiona

In total there are 5 quite large windows and a 5m wide sliding door, see plans attached. The property is very much a building site at the moment but we are hoping to be in by Christmas. What are the likely lead times on blinds and curtains at the moment? Would it be best to meet with you sooner rather than later to discuss our requirements?

Kind Regards,

Charles
