Hi Scotty,

No problem. We do have a more robust wand that we use on our nexus verticals however we have been running some tests today and have found that this wand does work on the vogue track. This comes in white, black, cream, silver, and anthracite. If you do start to have any more issues and would like to try this wand please let me know and we can send these out to you 😊

Kind Regards

Hi Scotty,

Sorry! Think I was getting myself confused. So to confirm you require both of the living room headrails to be remade as white for E901 D'abbot Doyle. And for E802 Messervy-Gross-Bed' you require the two headrails for this location to be remade as brushed aluminium. So a total of 4x headrails?

Kind Regards
