Hello Leeana,
Thank you for your reply. I am awaiting a response from our technical team as to this exact part for the Brustor pergola.

I am unable to see exactly what was installed there by Caribbean Blinds as we do not have a reference to the site and therefore what was installed. Could you advise me what was happening with the pergola and what failed as we can advise on what it might be?
Could you also confirm if it was a B150 or a B200 pergola model?

Thank you

Hi

The install is at the café at Durrell (Jersey Zoo), I believe it was installed by Caribbean blinds, Approx 6 years ago.

I am hoping you can trace through from that detail....

Appreciate your assistance

Hello Leeana,

Thanks for your enquiry,

Could you confirm if the client has a Brustor B200 pergola? It appears to be the control board but we do need to know for which model pergola. Do they have the original information from when they purchased the pergola?

Thank you
