Hello Rachel,

Apologies for the delay, I have been trying to get through to our technical team.

As requested please see below the prices for these motorised Allusion blinds. I have quoted on the Vista fabric as this is the higher band so if they decide to have the Horizon fabric the cost will come down. Included in each is the cost for the motor.

A reason why Tropical may not have quoted for the blinds is we do not recommend using the vertical motors on a width exceeding 3m. I have spoken with our technicians and the motor struggles to turn the louvers over the 3m as there is not enough power in the motor.

Kind regards
Sarah
