Hi Scotty,

Thank you for your response.

You don't need a separate EDRs for each shutter, EDRS where you have multiple lines, if you do them on the same order it will save costs in the long run otherwise the freight is chargeable per order.

I will amend the order but going forward any EDR will need to be raised on one order otherwise they get put through and charged separately, the next time you have an EDR with multiple lines to be raised please let us know and we can go through this with you over the phone.

The cost changing this onto one order will be £35.30 +VAT plus £30.00 +VAT air freight

Kind Regards,

Emma Jones
