Hi Adrian,

Great news.

I note that you have selected a fabric which is 100% linen, please bear in mind the characteristics of linen; it has a relaxed look with possible wrinkles. Not to say that they won't look great but I want to manage your expectations.

I have ordered returnable sample pieces of fabric, as I suggested to Rose, good idea to see bigger piece when you have such large areas. They should be here mid-week.

With regard to survey, Adrian can come next week does Tuesday at 4pm or Wednesday at 8.30/9 ? if not let me know when works and I will try slot in.

Kind regards,

Leeana

Hi Leeana,

I hope all is well

We have chosen a fabric for the curtains at the house and Rose will drop the books back to you tomorrow at some point

Please see pic of fabric below

Will somebody come round to take measurements etc. or has that already been done?

Regards

Adrian

Morning Adrian,

Are you still looking for a medium weight sheer fabric, the same for everywhere? There are a lot of sample books, I would normally suggest visiting the showroom and borrowing some books in first instance. If you need some guidance we could come to site with a few books. Let me know what you would prefer.

While emailing could I ask you to settle the balance of the outstanding invoice please.

Many thanks

Hi Leeana,

I hope all is well

Just wondering how you are fixed to meet up and choose fabrics for the curtains at VR, would it be useful to meet at the house with the fabrics so we can look at them in situ?

Let me know how you would prefer to do it

Adrian

Hi Adrian,

Thanks for the payment on account. I can see that the cost of fabric in the bedrooms hasn't be included in the room total and, therefore, total of £69,460. I have highlighted on the attached. To be honest, I can't remember now whether these were removed as were going to be done later or what the thought was.

Happy to see you whenever re fabric selection, let me know in advance so I can make sure myself or Rachel are here to help.

Many thanks
