Good morning,

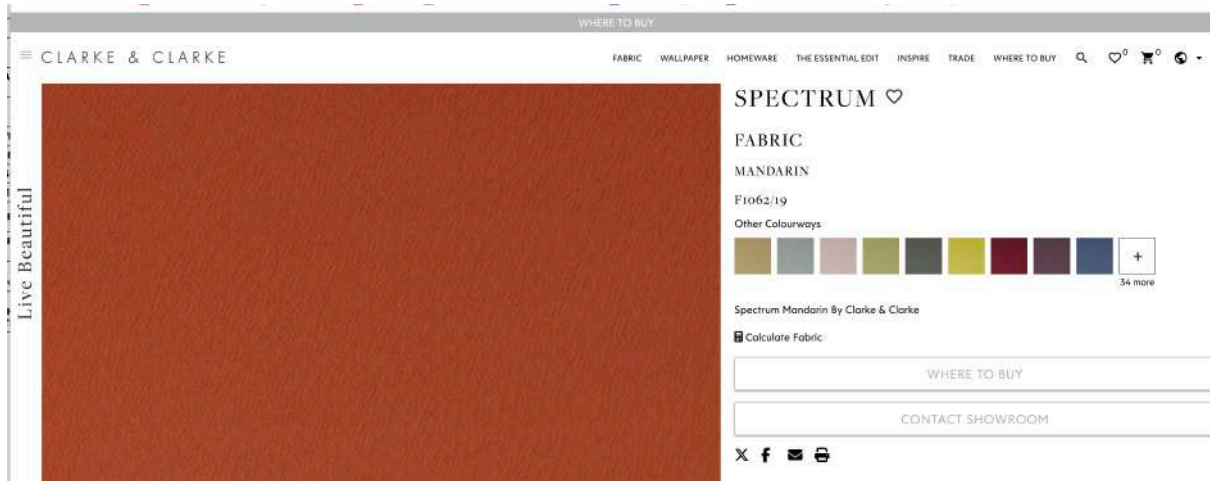

We have received cushion covers for BINNINGTON SO17132 however, they have been made with the reverse side of the fabric and it should be plain as the below. I do appreciate I can now see it could be used both ways however this should have been checked before making up. Unfortunately this isn't a sample book we have in our showroom so have just picked up on this now.

I have just found some spare fabric from the curtains that were made previously so if we get this out to you, please can you remake?

Attached order form

Kind Regards
