Child Safety and Internal Window Blinds

Risk Assessment for Supplying and Installing non Compliant Blinds

Introduction

The standards relating to child safety for internal window blinds will be mandated under the General Product Safety Regulations.

EN13120 does not apply to all countries. When this Risk Assessment is completed, the person completing this form is signing to confirm that the country to which the product is being sold, is not required to conform to EN13120

Customer Name: Cindy Wanless

Site Address: Quantock House, Links Estate

Based on a risk assessment on behalf of the above organisation/customer stated above I confirm:
