Extra Works to house blinds	Specials	Curtain arrangements would need to be refitted forward to allow blinds to be installed behind. There are plenty of power points but we would ask our electrician create individual spurs for the blinds if need be or we would trace cables in trunking of which can be hidden to then attach to plug. This area would need a final survey before costing. Cost at present are blinds with control unit manufacture and install. Speak to Gary Emanuel if you wish to look into this further and he can survey and Special Instructions: Curtain arrangements would need to be refitted forward to allow blinds to be installed behind.
