Hi,

I have booked you in for a first call tomorrow to customer Laurie 23137. This customer was expecting her shutters to arrive before Christmas however they are now not due until January. The customer is aware that the shutters have been delayed due to shipping issues if asked please follow this story. As a goodwill gesture we have offered to fit temporary roller blinds until her shutters arrive so, please can you measure for these tomorrow? These blinds will be made in India white which is a plain white fabric.

If you have any questions please let me know.
