Consumer Contracts Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges Regulations 2013 The above regulations require that traders give certain information to consumers who buy goods, services or digital content. This information is given below. The Regulations give consumers a right to cancel contracts without penalty in certain circumstances. These rights DO NOT apply in the instances in the table below. If you are entering a legally binding contract and that you will be unable to cancel it if you subsequently change your mind. It is, however, our responsibility to supply you with goods that meet your requirements. It is our responsibility to deliver the goods that you have ordered. If we do not agree a delivery time we must deliver the goods without undue delay and certainly no later than 30 days from the date of the contract.
