Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013. The above regulations require that traders give certain information to consumers who buy goods, services or digital content in addition to our contract details. A full description of the goods & services ordered, information is given below. The Regulations give consumers a right to cancel contracts without penalty in certain circumstances. These rights do not apply to the balance of the blind you are ordering and make no reference to your specification. You must therefore understand that your contract is a legally binding contract and that you will be unable to cancel it if you subsequently change your mind. It is, however, your responsibility to supply us with goods that meet your contractual rights. If you have any concerns that we have not met our legal obligations, please contact us. It is our responsibility to deliver the goods that you have ordered. If we do not agree it delivers then we must deliver the goods without delay and we will not have the right to cancel your order.
