Dear Hilary

I'm happy to accept the quote for the blinds.

I didn't realise the chain and cord for my sitting room balcony doors would be so expensive, so as only the right hand side is currently faulty, I will just go with this side and disregard the left hand side which is working.

Therefore I have paid a deposit today of £300 and I look forward to receiving the new blinds in due course.

Many thanks and kind regards

Christina Horrox
